Advanced Entry

Graduates of a diploma program may be eligible to complete this degree faster through one of our pathway options (<https://www.senecapolytechnic.ca/programs/fulltime/BHRM/pathways.html>).

Program and Course Delivery

This program is offered in Seneca's hybrid delivery format with some courses available in Seneca's flexible delivery format. Some coursework is online and some must be completed in person. Students will need to come on campus to complete in-person learning requirements. For courses offered in the flexible delivery format, professors use innovative learning spaces and technology to teach students in a classroom or lab and broadcast in real time to students attending remotely. In flexible courses, students have the choice of coming on campus or learning online.

Skills

Throughout this program you will develop the following skills:

- Interpretation of laws and regulations
- Critical thinking
- Mathematical concepts
- Staffing techniques
- Information Management

Work Experience Mandatory Degree Co-op

A work experience that includes at least one term in a formal work environment. In most cases the work term(s) is a paid position that is completed between two academic semesters and requires a minimum of 420 hours of work. Students must be in good standing and meet all identified requirements prior to participating in the work experience.

The successful completion of the co-op work term(s) is required for graduation. Eligibility for participation does not guarantee that a work position will be secured. Additional fees are required for those participating in the mandatory co-op stream regardless of success in securing a work position.

Seneca has been granted a consent by the Minister of Colleges and Universities to offer this degree for a seven-year term starting March 20, 2020. In conformity with the Minister's criteria and requirements, Seneca will submit an application for the renewal of the consent for this program 12 months prior to the expiration of the consent. Seneca shall ensure that all students admitted to the above-named program during the period of consent will have the opportunity to complete the program within a reasonable time frame.

Program Learning Outcomes

This Seneca program has been validated by the Credential Validation Service as an Ontario College Credential as required by the Ministry of Colleges and Universities.

As a graduate, you will be prepared to reliably demonstrate the ability to:

- Apply global perspectives and foundational human resources knowledge (including but not limited to Compensation and benefits, Occupational Health & safety, Training and development, Organizational design, Organizational behaviour, Employment law, HR Planning, Recruitment and selection, and Employee/Labour relations) and best practices to inform strategic organizational decision-making.
- Integrate general business principles and practices to develop solutions to business opportunities and challenges.
- Analyze workplace scenarios to optimize an organization's human resources practices.
- Analyze organizational behaviour and culture theories and practices to examine and implement employee involvement strategies, effective leadership practices, and organizational change.
- Integrate appropriate technology and human resources information management systems (HRIMS) when formulating strategies and plans.
- Evaluate the effectiveness of HR practices using data analysis and metrics for strategic decision-making.
- Promote ethical and legal human resources management guidelines, principles and practices to ensure the sustainability, accountability, and integrity of the organization.
- Develop communications plans and HR strategies that enhance collaboration and promote diversity and inclusion.
- Conduct systematic research through the application of research methodologies to investigate HR opportunities and challenges and to provide recommendations for informed decision-making.
- Build and manage interpersonal relationships and teams through effective communication, collaboration, negotiation, problem solving, and self-reflective practice.
