

OFFICE ADMINISTRATION – LEGAL (LES)

About the Program

This twelve-month, flexible (<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7Ne0Q8j1OGc>), diploma program will enable you to acquire the relevant administrative and technological skills to meet the demands of the current and emerging legal office environment. Through practical, hands-on training you will acquire a knowledge of legal office procedures, document production, specialized legal software, professionalism and ethics. Areas of study include litigation, family, corporate, real estate and estate law.

In three consecutive semesters, you will acquire the skills and knowledge usually offered in a four-semester program. This format allows you to complete the program and access the job market at a non-traditional time. Fluency in English, verbal and written, is critical to your success in the program and the legal environment, and there is a strong focus on communicating effectively from the beginning of your program to graduation.

After successful completion of this diploma, you are eligible for admission to the Law Clerk (Accelerated) (<https://www.senecapolytechnic.ca/programs/fulltime/LCKA.html>) program.

Required Keyboarding Speed

You must have a keyboarding speed of 50 words per minute (net) to graduate from this program.

Program and Course Delivery

This program is offered in Seneca's flexible delivery format, with some courses delivered online. For courses offered in the flexible delivery format, professors use innovative learning spaces and technology to teach students in a classroom or lab and broadcast in real time to students attending remotely. In flexible courses, students have the choice of coming on campus or learning online.

Skills

Throughout this program you will develop the following skills:

- Familiarity with legal procedures and terminology
- Written communication, drafting and proofreading
- Organization and time management
- Problem-solving
- Proficiency in Microsoft Word and Excel, and specialized legal software

Work Experience

Field Placement

If you meet all the necessary academic requirements, you will be able to participate in an unpaid field placement that will allow you to acquire hands-on experience in a formal legal environment. You may have a shared responsibility for securing a placement. The placement may take place after the third semester of classroom studies, extending the length of the program by one month

Your Career

As a graduate of this program, you may pursue a career as a legal administrative assistant or receptionist in a law firm, government office or corporate legal department.

Affiliations/Associations

Through a partnership with the Association of Administrative Professionals (AAP) (<https://canadianadmin.ca/>), student members will have access to national and international resources, learning opportunities and up-to-date industry trends. Students and graduates of Seneca's Office Administration programs can choose to develop their careers by pursuing a Canadian Certified Administrative Professional (CCAP) certification through the AAP.
