

PROFESSIONAL SELLING (PSL)

About the Program

This eight-month graduate certificate program will give you the latest skills needed to succeed in business-to-business (B2B) sales roles in the culturally diverse environments of the global market. The skills-based program focuses on developing a technology-driven, post-pandemic salesforce, so that you will be ready to add value in a number of roles once you graduate.

In the first semester, you will learn about prospecting, modern sales technology, speaking with clients, the sales process and virtual selling. In the second semester, you will develop skills related to inside sales, technology and analytics, communication strategies and B2B marketing.

You will have the choice to study on campus or online. In addition, an optional work term will provide an opportunity to get experience with a company and build professional contacts ahead of your graduation.

Program and Course Delivery

This program is offered in Seneca's flexible delivery format, with some courses delivered online. For courses offered in the flexible delivery format, professors use innovative learning spaces and technology to teach students in a classroom or lab and broadcast in real time to students attending remotely. In flexible courses, students have the choice of coming on campus or learning online.

Skills

Throughout this program you will develop the following skills:

- persuasive, intercultural communication
- prospecting fundamentals
- client management
- understanding the sales process
- the latest industry technology and digital systems
- how to read and analyze digital analytics and financial documents

Work Experience

Optional Work Term

Students meeting all academic requirements may have the opportunity to complete an optional work term(s) in a formal work environment. The work term(s) is similar in length to an academic semester and typically involves full-time work hours that may be paid or unpaid. In programs with limited work term opportunities, additional academic requirements and a passing grade on a communication assessment may be required for eligibility. Eligibility for participation does not guarantee a work position will be secured. Additional fees are required for those participating in the optional work term stream regardless of success in securing a work position.
